

Men's Ministry BookShelf

During the course of the Men's Ministry at Incarnate Word, we share a wide range of books on the Catholic Faith and men's spirituality. This is a sample of the best titles we have covered:

Velvet and Steel by John Ream

Wild at Heart by John Eldredge

Wildmen, Warriors and Kings by Patrick Arnold

Hunting for God, Fishing for the Lord by Fr. Joe Classen

Mere Christianity by C.S. Lewis

Meat & Potatoes Catholicism by Fr. Joe Classen

Grain of Wheat and Growing in the Virtues of Jesus by Quentin Hakenewerth

Render Unto Caesar by Archbishop Charles Chaput

Catholics can and should have a profound influence in the public sphere, not to go along with the flow towards secularism, but as citizens of heaven first, "to be authentically and unselfishly Catholic."

For more, see the Reflection on the Resources page

Coming in Fall 2009:

Onward Catholic Soldier by John LaBriola - a treasure trove of information on how to protect yourself and your loved ones from the snares of the devil.

And later in 2010:

Prayer for Beginners by Peter Kreeft - the necessity of prayer, various motives, and methods, steps, patience, suffering, sin, faith, and grace.

Many of these books can be found in the Incarnate Word Adult Faith Library for parishioners to borrow.