

Incarnate Word School

Social Studies – Subject Area Goals

- Students will show respect for their own culture and people of diverse races, cultures, and nationalities.
- Students will describe how culture shapes one’s personal identity.
- Student will demonstrate individual development, and the relationship of individuals and groups to institutions and cultural traditions.
- Students will show appreciation for continuity and change with in the history and heritage of community, state, nation, and the world.
- Students will recognize and show appreciation for national holidays and traditions.
- Students will identify basic geographic landforms and respect the natural resources of the Earth.
- Students will create and interpret information presented on social studies tools such as maps, graphs, timelines, and political cartoons.
- Student will identify the economic concepts and principles of production, distribution, and consumption.
- Students will identify important principles expressed in the foundational documents of the United States that shape the constitutional democracy.
- Students will define and apply characteristics of civil responsibility and leadership.
- Students will identify principles and process of the United States and different governance systems.
- Students will discuss current events.
- Students will use research tools to understand the impact of science and technology on individuals and society.