3rd Sunday of Advent

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." - Philippians 4:6-7

St. Paul reminds us that our God is an abundant God, the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. When we trust that God will take care of us, it is easier for us to share what we have been given.

Reach Out

Next Sunday's Reach Out collection will be for the benefit of St. Augustine. Please support this worthy cause.

In Our Midst

The Christmas Mass schedule at Incarnate Word is as follows: Christmas Eve at 4:00pm & 6:00pm and a Midnight Mass celebrated by Bishop Hermann. Christmas morning Masses are at 8:45am, 10:30am & 12:15pm. The 4:00pm Mass is always unbelievably crowded. You might want to consider choosing a Mass on Christmas Day. Oddly enough, there are always plenty of seats available at the Masses on Christmas Day. There is to be NO SAVING OF SEATS at any Mass. It is not fair to those who arrive early not be able to get a seat in a pew because not everyone in another family has arrived. Please be considerate of your fellow parishioners.

I have heard from many that this year's Advent by Candlelight may have been the best one yet. The Kent Center was all aglow in candlelight and the 250 ladies in attendance were put in an Advent frame of mind by the wonderfully touching reflection given by Mike Roberts. Thanks to all the hostesses who make this event so special each year. Please check out photos of the event by going to our website at www.incarnate-word.org and click on the Photo Gallery button on the top of the page.

The third annual Catholic Men for Christ Conference will be held on Saturday, February 6, 2010. The event will once again be held at the America's Center. Over 1,200 men participated in this event in 2009. Please contact our parish captains, Kyle McCollom at 314-542-2535 or Ted Juen 314-205-1823 for more information. The early bird registration price of $40 is available until Dec 31. More information can be found at www.catholicmenforchrist.com.

Job Search Assistance & Career Networking

Whether you are unemployed or just looking for a BETTER job, career networking is the key. The Incarnate Word Job Search Ministry is part of the Catholic Employment Network, a collection of West County parishes that share job information and resources.

The Catholic Employment Network helps the unemployed and under-employed to proactively network with industry contacts and hiring authorities. We promote a proven step-by-step system that takes job seekers through determining the direction of their search, preparing for networking activity, calling and meeting with industry contacts to gain referrals and interviews.

The next Job Search & Career Networking Meeting is at Incarnate Word on Thursday, December 17th, from 7:30pm to 9:00pm in the Watson Room in the Lower Church Hall. Please join us for instruction and assistance on finding and landing a better job. Everyone is welcome and please invite anyone you know who might be in a job search or unhappy with their current position.

We are in need of "Industry Contacts" or volunteers who can meet with job seekers from their industry to give them advice, guidance and referrals to aid in their search. Contact Brian Calsyn with questions, 314-628-9893 or brian@teamcalsyn.com.

Cell Phone Collection

The Ladies Auxiliary will once again be collecting cell phones to be used by women at Women's Place. If you are getting a new phone at Christmas, this is a nice time to donate your old one. All information in the phones is deleted before the phones are redistributed. You may place phones in the collection box at the back of church. Call Mariann Aussieker at 636-532-0196 for more information

Saint Vincent DePaul Society Report

A Huge Thank You for your financial support via the Thanksgiving collection which topped $3,200.

We were able to redirect your generosity to client needs of utilities ($1100), auto expenses ($400) and rent ($300).

We also made our 10th annual pre-Thanksgiving trek to the inner city parish of St. Matthew's with 100 frozen chickens and big boxes of fresh fruit. St. Gabriel's SVDP rounded out the gift with canned goods, etc.

Fifty-five families had a good solid Thanksgiving meal because of you!

Pro Life News

THE NATIVITY SET RAFFLE ...and the winner is.....

Congratulations to Karen Erlinger from our Parish whose name was picked after the 12:15 Mass last Sunday. She and her husband were present to get the news in person and were delighted to be the new owners of the Willow Tree Nativity Set. We had a successful campaign and the we exceeded last year's receipts by 20%. That's a lot of tickets sold and on behalf of the Pro Life Committee I want to thank all who supported the raffle with their generous donations. Everyone is a winner because the pro life organizations and others that we support will be able to help women who are contemplating a decision to continue their pregnancy. Before presenting our generous donor of the matching funds with the total receipts, we want to give you another opportunity to contribute to the Incarnate Word Pro Life. Your contributions can be included in your 2009 charitable deductions up to the end of the year. Remember this will be doubled up to $10,000. Contact Pat at 314-576-1366 or email patp16@aol.com

BIRTHRIGHT Christmas Cards are still available. Cards are $5.00 for 10 cards. Call Carol (314-469-1605).

Christmas at Westchester House

Please remember our elderly friends this holiday season. Some of them have no families.

There will be a box with Westchester House on it for your gifts in the vestibule.

Some gift items could be socks, sweatshirts (men or ladies) jewelry (stretch bracelets or necklaces that go over the head), small decorations for their room or stuffed animals.

Last day for giving will be Sunday, December 13th.

Thank you for the many years you have been so generous.

Third Sunday of Advent
December 13, 2009

Zep 3:14-18a; Phil 4:4-7; Lk 3:10-18

GOSPEL HIGHLIGHT: Lk 3:10-11 – "The crowds asked John the Baptist, 'What should we do?' He said to them in reply, 'Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise.'"

KEY IDEA: Many of the questions posed in the Gospels are profoundly human questions. They reflect the deepest desires of the human heart and our human longing for God. In today's Gospel the crowds press John with a fundamental question about discipleship. What should the life of a disciple look like? How should a disciple of the Lord treat others at home, act towards those in need, and behave in the workplace? These questions confront every Christian disciple in every age. And as we continue our Advent preparations, the Word of God encourages us to share our spiritual and material goods with those in need. In a season marked by excessive commercialism and material consumption, we are reminded of our countercultural witness as Christians.

TAKE 30 (SECONDS): Reflect or pray in silence.

SHARE: How can sharing with those in need during Advent better prepare you to receive the gift of the Incarnation at Christmas? How will your family concretely respond to Jesus' invitation to the crowds, tax collectors, and soldiers in the Gospel? Discuss one work of charity or service to those in need that your family can carry out this Advent.

PRAY: (Have family members respond as indicated.) Let us pray for those in our community who are in need. Let each member of the family offer the names of those in need of prayer or of material or spiritual help this Advent. Let us pray for the strength and the perseverance to reach out in love and service to those in need.
